6. PERSONAL ESSAY

The Campus Honors Program is intended to be a lively and diverse community, not an array of privileges awarded to students on the basis of high school academic records. The admissions committee for the Program thus seeks to know more about applicants than can be conveyed by test scores, class rank, and lists of extracurricular activities.

Years from now (you can decide exactly when), you are writing your autobiography. Send us page 157.

Essay limit: 300 words maximum

(Additional space for essay if needed)

7. Other than completing your academic work, describe briefly any specific goals, academic projects or extracurricular interests you wish to pursue in your undergraduate career (optional).

8. SIGNATURE (required for processing)

I certify that all information provided on this application is complete, factually accurate, and honestly presented.
I also grant permission for this application to be reviewed by college and campus officers for possible merit awards.

(Type name as your Electronic Signature)

Date

Please note: if your academic record changes significantly after you mail this application, please notify the Campus Honors Program in writing as soon as possible (chp@illinois.edu).

For full consideration, your application must be received by the CHP no later than February 1st. Applications received later may be considered for admission to the program only on a space available basis.
